AMENDED COMPLAINT

NOW COME the plaintiffs by and through their attorney and for their Amended Complaint state as follows:

Count 1

1. The defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel violated U.S.C.A. Sec. 1962(a), (c) and (d). The defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel formed a scheme to defraud, used the mails and wires in furtherance of that scheme, and had the requisite intent to defraud.

2. The alleged wrongdoers are Dilipkumar Patel, Chairman of the Asian American Hotel Owners Association ("AAHOA"), Ashwin Patel, Vice Chairman of AAHOA, and the Asian American Hotel Owners Association.

3. The acts committed by Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel alleged here were done by them personally, either while present in, or by the use of the mails and other instrumentalities in interstate commerce to and from the State of Illinois and elsewhere.

Petal, Manubhai Patel, Dave Brahmabhatt, Barkat Gillani, Harsha P. Shukla, Pradeep B. Shukla, Ami Mehta, Akshay Thaker, Jaya K. Patel, Bhakta, Kirit Madhiwala, Mansoorali Lakhani, Mohammed Gilani, Shahim Lakhani, Vyomesh M. Joshi, Kalpesh Joshi, Ashok B. Shah, and Gita A. Shah, members of the Asian American Hotel Owners Association.

5. The plaintiffs were injured from predicate acts made possible by the defendants' internal investment and use of the proceeds of prior predicate acts. The alleged predicate acts and the specific statutes allegedly violated by each predicate act include acts that violate the following provisions of title 18, United States Code: section 1341 (relating to mail fraud), section 1343 (relating to wire fraud), and section 1957 (relating to engaging in monetary transactions in property derived from specified unlawful activity).

6. The pattern of racketeering activity includes at least two acts of racketeering activity, one of which occurred after the effective date of the Act and the last of which occurred within ten years after the commission of a prior act of racketeering activity. The acts of racketeering activity included the following:

7. At the 2003 AAHOA annual convention in Long Beach, California, defendant Dilipkumar Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that defendant had not helped any candidate financially when in fact defendant possessed prior knowledge that Dilipkumar Patel paid members to vote for him to obtain the position of North Georgia Regional Director and AAHOA Board Member.

8. At the 2004 AAHOA annual convention in New Orleans, defendant Danny Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that defendant had not helped any candidate financially when in fact defendant possessed prior knowledge that Dilipkumar Patel paid members to vote for him to obtain the position of AAHOA Treasurer and AAHOA Board Member.

9. On June 14, 2004, and prior and subsequent thereto, the defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that Lodging Insurance Solutions was an entity completely independent of defendants' control when in fact defendants possessed prior knowledge that defendants exercised significant control over the day-to-day business affairs of Lodging Insurance Solutions.

10. On July 14, 2004, and prior and subsequent thereto, the defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that Lodging Insurance Solutions was an entity created for ownership by AAHOA when in fact defendants possessed prior knowledge that AAHOA would never have ownership and that defendants themselves had ownership of Lodging Insurance Solutions.

11. At the 2006 AAHOA annual convention in Las Vegas, defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that defendants had not helped any candidate financially when in fact defendants possessed prior knowledge that defendants had paid members to elect Sam Devadhra as Director at Large and Tarun Patel as Treasurer. The defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel knew that Sam Devadhra and Tarun Patel would vote per their instructions on matters before the Board of Directors of AAHOA.

12. At the 2007 AAHOA annual convention in Charlotte, defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that defendants had not paid members to vote when in fact defendants possessed prior knowledge that defendants paid members to elect Vipin Patel as Director at Large. Defendants knew that Vipin Patel would vote as instructed on matters before the AAHOA Board of Directors.

13. On March 31, 2007, and prior and subsequent thereto, defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that defendants had not participated in illegal kickback schemes with Wyndham Hotels and Choice Hotels when in fact defendants possessed prior knowledge that Wyndham Hotels and Choice Hotels provided secret compensation to defendants to suppress and delay publication of AAHOA "Report Cards" critical of Choice Hotels and Wyndham Hotels.

14. The defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel received illegal kickbacks from Choice Hotels and Wyndham Hotels including lenient franchise agreements for Dilipkumar Patel's hotels in Georgia and the Carolinas and Ashwin Patel's hotels in Arizona and California, less rigorous and less frequent compliance inspections, lower royalty fees, the withholding of litigation against defendants' hotels for serious contract breaches, aggressive litigation against non-favored hotels for minor contract breaches, and other compensation.

15. At the 2003 AAHOA annual convention in Long Beach, California, and prior and subsequent thereto, defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that defendants had acted in the best interests of AAHOA in awarding entertainment contracts when in fact defendants possessed prior knowledge that defendants received illegal kickbacks from entertainers hired for the convention.

16. At the 2007 AAHOA annual convention in Charlotte, North Carolina, and prior and subsequent thereto, defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that defendants had acted in the best interests of AAHOA in awarding entertainment contracts when in fact defendants possessed prior knowledge that defendants received illegal kickbacks from entertainers hired for the convention.

17. At the 2003 AAHOA annual convention in Long Beach, California, and prior and subsequent thereto, defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that defendants had acted in the best interests of AAHOA in awarding food vending contracts when in fact defendants possessed prior knowledge that defendants received illegal kickbacks from food vendors hired for the convention.

18. At the 2007 AAHOA annual convention in Charlotte, North Carolina, and prior and subsequent thereto, defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by misrepresentations that defendants had acted in the best interests of AAHOA in awarding food vending contracts when in fact defendants possessed prior knowledge that defendants received illegal kickbacks from food vendors hired for the convention.

19. On June 12, 2007, and prior and subsequent thereto, defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by issuance of a notice of intent to rescind the contracts with Donald E. Stephens Convention Center and Hyatt Hotels. Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel falsely represented that the Donald E. Stephens Convention Center was inadequate in terms of the shape of the rooms, ceiling heights, number and spacing of columns and seating setup when in fact the defendants possessed prior knowledge that the Rosemont Convention Center met or exceeded the needs of AAHOA for its annual convention.

20. On July 16, 2007, and prior and subsequent thereto, defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel committed mail fraud and wire fraud by issuance of letters to members advising of their decision to move the annual convention away from Chicago and to terminate all contracts associated with the Donald E. Stephens Convention Center in Rosemont, Illinois. The defendants falsely represented that the venue was inadequate when in fact the defendants knew that holding the convention in Chicago would likely result in defendants' loss of control over the AAHOA Board of Directors, and that by moving the convention to San Antonio the defendants could erect geographical barriers to voters from the Midwest region.

21. The defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel conducted the affairs of AAHOA through a pattern of racketeering are employed by or associated with the enterprise. The defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel made false representations to facilitate the fraud upon the plaintiffs and others.

22. The defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel also caused injury from the predicate fraudulent representations, and from subsequent use or investment of the proceeds.

23. The enterprises, individuals, partnerships, corporations, associations, or other entities allegedly constituting the enterprise are the Asian American Hotel Owners Association, Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel. The Asian American Hotel Owners Association, Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel are perpetrators of the alleged racketeering activity. The benefits received by defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel include the use and enjoyment of the assets belonging to plaintiffs, increased profits, and improvement of their competitive position.

24. The structure, purpose, roles, function, and course of conduct of the enterprise included acts of mail fraud and wire fraud and other acts that were false and fraudulent.

25. The relationship between Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel is ordered and arranged as part of a common plan and external organizing principle to defraud and convert the assets of the plaintiffs.

26. The activities of the enterprise affect interstate and foreign commerce. Such activities in and affecting interstate commerce include, among others, the hotel industry, which includes interstate commerce.

27. In violation of U.S.C.A. Sec. 1962(a), the income derived from the pattern of racketeering activity was received by defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel. The investment income from the racketeering activity was used to commit further acts of mail fraud and wire fraud.

28. The conspiracy committed by defendants in their common scheme was to conceal and affirmatively misstate the existence and value of illegal kickbacks and compensation received by defendants. The alleged injury to business and property is the loss of millions of dollars. The alleged injury was directly caused by defendants' violation of the R.I.C.O. statute.

29. Defendants, for the purpose of executing the scheme to defraud plaintiffs of their property, transmitted and caused to be transmitted communications by means of wire in interstate commerce. Such interstate communications by wire included, without limitation, telephone calls between plaintiffs and other agents and employees, and defendants.

30. The use of the mails for purposes of effectuating the `above-described scheme to defraud plaintiffs, which occurred on more than one occasion in the past ten years, or the transmission of interstate communications by wire or telephone to effectuate the above-described scheme to defraud plaintiffs, which occurred on more than one occasion in the past ten years, constitutes, for the purposes of this action, a pattern of racketeering activity in violation of 18 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1962, for which treble damages, costs of suit and attorneys' fees may be sought under 18 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1964(c).

WHEREFORE, the plaintiffs pray for judgment against each of the defendants Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel for the sum of ten million ($10,000,000.00) dollars, treble damages, attorney's fees, and other expenses and losses.

18. The fraudulent acts and conduct of defendants as described were intended to induce action in reliance thereon, and plaintiffs reasonably relied on the statements and misrepresentations by defendants.

19. The acts of Dilipkumar Patel and Ashwin Patel are deemed to be the acts of and are chargeable to and binding upon the Asian American Hotel Owners Association.

20. As a direct and proximate result of the breaches of duty by defendants Dilipkumar Patel, Ashwin Patel and the Asian American Hotel Owners Association, in whole or in part, the defendants defrauded the plaintiffs and plaintiffs suffered economic and pecuniary losses, and will continue to experience such losses in the future.
